by Mickey (Howard) Park '55

Mickey Park, who began his work as the new Bryan Alumni Field Representative in Sept. 1963, is a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary and a former teacher at French Camp Academy in Miss. He and Martha have joined the alumni staff at Bryan with a sincere desire to advance the cause of higher education in a Christian atmosphere.

Change is inevitable. Bryan has undergone some changes in the last two college generations that have passed through our Alma Mater since I graduated in '55. Often I've wondered, speculated, and investigated to see to what extent this was true and in what direction the changes were taking place. Now, as a result of the direct leadership of the Lord, I have the opportunity to discover personally the answers to these questions, which doubtless many of you have shared.

As the Alumni Field Representative, I am seeking to fill this new position created by the alumni and directed primarily to generating further alumni interest and support. It becomes my responsibility also to absorb the spirit of Bryan and to communicate that image of Bryan to the alumni. For the past few weeks I have sat in faculty workshops, student leadership conference, and general "gab sessions" with students and teachers alike. I've watched as two Bryan graduates, Ken Campbell and Jim Reese, gave the challenge in the spiritual life meetings to total commitment to the purposes for which God has brought us here. I've listened as students related the events that led to their enrollment at Bryan, and I've realized how much these days resembled my own years here. And to a degree, the spirit of Bryan is easily observable.

During the coming year I'll be travelling across the United States to contact alumni. I believe Bryan stands at a crucial point in its relatively brief history. And the future of Bryan can be determined, to a large degree by our 1) vital prayer support, 2) dollars donated, 3) student procurement, 4) unified direct influence. If the future of Bryan proves to be disappointing, it will be due largely to the fact that we as alumni have not taken advantage of these avenues of interest.

Pray with us that the days ahead will be fruitful for the cause of Bryan, and especially that in an honest, fair, and unprejudiced portrayal of Bryan, steps will be taken to undergird the work here, not for the praise of men, but for the glory of Him Who rightfully should be above all.

This issue of BRYANETTE includes a collection of news items covering the past six months and is therefore considered a review of 1963. You are invited to send to the Alumni Office notes of interest concerning yourself or other alumni to make this newsletter one of increased news value to all our Bryan friends. Your Alumni Office stands ready to serve you at any time with current addresses, literature about Bryan, or colored slides for use in alumni meetings or youth meetings in your church.

Address your request or your news to Mickey Park, alumni field representative, or to Rebecca Peck, executive secretary.

ASIA

PHILIPPINES

Three Bryan families met for a picnic in the Philippines while Wycliffe Bible Translators were having a linguistic workshop. Ernie Lee also visited Audrey Mayer '54 in Manila on his return trip to Vietnam.

VIETNAM

Ernest '52 and Lois (Cartwright x'54) Lee are encouraged that the local priest accepted the Roglai alphabet they have worked out. Reading materials are being tried out in the Roglai language. The Lees returned to the States in August because of Lois' health after the arrival of their baby girl. They are living with their four children in a three-bedroom mobile home in Bloomington, Ind., where Ernie is enrolled at Indiana University working on a Ph.D. in linguistics.

Robert '51 and Mildred (McBride x'51) Davis in Hue, Vietnam, indicate that a war of subversion continues to rage through that country, and in many areas missionary activity is restricted to the larger cities. The Lord has continued to unfold His work in Hue in a miraculous way. A Youth Center has been established in the heart of the city for evangelism among the many university and high school students. Also a Lay Leadership Training Center is in the making to enable young men to work with their hands while they study the Word of God and win others to the Saviour. At present the work consists of growing a garden and raising chickens. The Davis' furlough is scheduled for August 1964.

JAPAN

Bessie Degerman '53 in October completed her first year of teaching three classes at the Japan Christian College in Tokyo. This semester she will be teaching "Christian Education of Children," which she considers one of the most valuable courses for JCC students. Don Hoke is president of JCC.

Margaret Ann McKinnon x'43 sailed back to the Philippines on March 3 and arrived safely after 19 days of travel. Just before departure she visited several Bryanites in Calif. --Cecil x'44 and Dorothy x'43 Hanson, Dean Geary x'41, Richard '43 and Eileen '43 Langford.

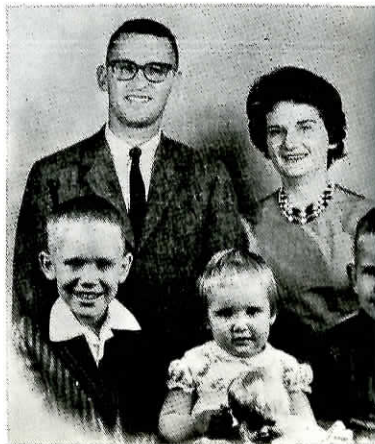

George '55 and Norma Haberer and family returned to Manila, on the S.S. PIONEER in Sept. George was able to take some additional items of equipment to improve their services of printing for the use of missionaries. He is affiliated with Association of Baptists for Worldwide Evangelism.

(Dutch New Guinea) IRIAN BARAT

Ralph '54 and Melba (Mays '55) Maynard report from Mulia, Sentania, Irian Barat (former Dutch New Guinea) that another baptism of 30 men and women makes 43 who have taken this step and stand for Christ out of their former life of sin and demonism. Fellow missionaries are opening a work in 'T' Valley among a people just like Mulia was a short time ago.

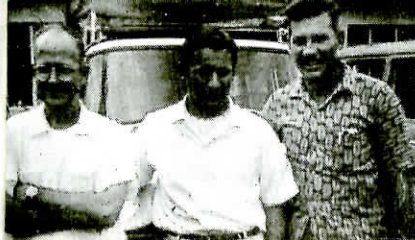

INDONESIA

Malcolm '57 and Rhoda sp. '56 Bradshaw have received their visa to enter Indonesia from the new nation, Malaysia. They plan to go in January but they must enter from another country, so will travel 2,000 miles out of the way of Bangkok. Malcolm has completed his manuscript on the story of the life of George K. Harris.

AFRICA

Tanganyika
Ruanda
Congo

Coombs
Lacey Crumley

Three Bryanites meet unexpectedly at Hugh Coombs' house--all three with International Travel--all cars!

Hugh '50 and Kay Coombs are with Berean Mission on loan to the Africa Inland Mission in Mwanza, Tanganyika, where Hugh is manager of the bookshop. Jack '52 and Marian Lacey are with the Brethren Mission in Ruanda at Kigali. Glenn '52 and Marjorie Crumley have returned to Congo under Berean Mission. The Laceys came to put their children in AIM school and Crumleys are going back to Congo after a vacation in Tanganyika.

George '48 and Alice (Northrup '45) Birch are teaching in the Bible Training School in Tofa, Nigeria. Seven tribes and languages are represented among the students but they all speak Hausa at the School under S.I.M.

Larry '57 and Shirley (Ardelean '56) Fehl are also S.I.M. teachers in the Bible College and Seminary at Igbaia, Nigeria.

Millie Mosby x'53 flew from Chicago early in January to return to her teaching duties at Titcombe College in Egbe, Nigeria.

David '53 and Mary (Grover '53) Naff arrived in Monrovia on Sept. 19 to take up duties at Radio Station ELWA.

Eugene '44 and Ernestine (Healan '44) Rose-nau returned to their station in Central African Republic early in 1963, leaving their two sons in Winter Garden, Fla., with Bruce '47 and Wilma (Walker x'49) and Judy Rosenau. Bruce recently had ear surgery in Cleveland, O.

George '49 and Ruth Ann (Adams x'51) Cone have exchanged furloughs with fellow missionaries and are now teaching in the Bible Institute at Bozoum, Central African Republic.

Alice White '55 is at home in Key West, Fla. following her first term in N. Rhodesia.

EUROPE

Nell Pearson '49 is pleased with the response to the new Church on Wheels which began its ministry in a town of 13,000 where a small group of believers cooperated. The caravan seats 28 and others may hear outside by means of loud speakers. It is used in these winter months for children's and adult meetings in a large housing area on the outskirts of Salzburg. There is strong opposition by the priests and nuns and children are sometimes prevented from returning to meetings.

Kermit Zopfi x'50 directs the German Bible Institute now in its ninth year with 40 students enrolled. Their 62 graduates are serving as pastors, evangelists, and Christian workers in Germany, with 10 on foreign mission fields. Kermit assisted in the Billy Graham meetings in Germany and acted as interpreter for Mr. Graham on some occasions.

MISSIONARIES ON FURLOUGH

Wanda Lautzenheiser '49 is working during part of her furlough in the office of the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade in Detroit, Mich.

Austin and Ellora (Caudill '53) Lockhart are residing in Huntington, W.Va., with their four daughters during furlough from New Guinea.

Pearl Rathbun '56 came to her home in Glen Ellyn, Ill., in March from Korea where she served on the staff of radio station HLKX.

John '54 and Janice (Brown '53) Miesel are making their furlough home in Sturtevant, Wis. since returning from Congo. John visited at Bryan in November.

Darwin '54 and June (Hively '54) Neddo are residing in Charleston, W.Va. since returning last summer from France with four children.

Lyman '49 and Helen (Parden '48) Goehring with their four children are on furlough from Brazil and making their home in Evans City, Pa.

Milton Murphey x'44 and family came from Nazareth, Israel, in July to make their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, this year. They serve with Southern Baptist Missions.

Edward '46 and Eileen (Goodman '46) Miller are remaining in California for the benefit of their children's schooling.

SOUTH AMERICA

Dale '54 and Martha (Sheffield '55) Payne have returned with their three children to Amazonas, Brazil, and are thankful for the safe arrival of their baggage and its clearance through customs in a reasonable manner. Now they are praying for a fiberglass boat to replace their old wooden one. The boat is essential both for their ministry and for securing supplies. They have a youth camp scheduled for January 12-19.

Paul '54 and Mary (Wiggins x'56) Marsteller with their sons, Philip and Mark, flew to Rio de Janeiro on November 25. They will be located in the mountain town of Nova Friburgo for about four months to study Portuguese.

Sandra Cue '55 finished writing and checking scripts for making Gospel Recordings records. They hope soon to have four records in the Waica language to distribute to far-off villages in the jungle area.

Ronald '52 and Gladys (Jennewein '50) Meznar in Sao Paulo, Brazil, began school in August. Gladys is teaching kindergarten at the Christian Day School and Jenny and Jill are attending first and fifth grades. Ronald continues his teaching at the Bible Institute which is seeking to raise the standards to meet the growing professional standards of Brazil.

Leonard '51 and Dona (Blaine x'53) Meznar are seeking to establish a testimony in Rio de Janeiro among the Jewish people since returning to Brazil last summer.

Robert x'59 and Marilyn Brennan are continuing the Jewish ministry in Sao Paulo which they took over for the Meznars at furlough.

COLOMBIA

Charles (Spud) '56 and Charlotte (Davis x'56) Willoughby were reminded of the Lord's protection when a rock thrown by children shattered the safety glass on the windshield of their Jeep and Timmy got a whole handful of glass right in his face, but not a single cut. Spud and two national pastors made a trip to the Nunchia area to hold the first Bible conference and baptize believers who had first heard the Gospel about a year and a half ago. Priscilla and the three boys are in good health!

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS

At the 1963 Alumni homecoming it was voted:

- 1) To complete the 1962 project first, putting the field representative in the field for a year. This is still not completed.
- 2) To raise $10,000 to establish an endowment for annual Alumni Spiritual Emphasis meetings at Bryan. Each year a speaker, normally an alumnus, chosen by the elected Alumni Executive Committee, would be brought to the campus for a week of special meetings for the students and staff. His honorarium and travel expenses would be paid for by earnings on the $10,000. Don't you think this project worthy of your regular financial support?

C. S. A. Review

The following statistical report is given in order that alumni may be better informed they pray for Bryan and also that they will be encouraged to recommend Bryan to young people who are looking for a College that offers practical Christian service in a variety of fields as well as formal education under distinctly Christian auspices.

Although the Christian Education department has been absorbed by the Bible and education departments in order that Bryan students now graduate with teacher certification in addition to sufficient Bible and Christian education-related courses to enable them to receive the Evangelical Teacher Training Association diploma, this change has meant that there is no interest in opportunities for Christian service.

This past year the CSA proved to be a very active organization which sponsored monthly chapel meetings in addition to engaging in various activities listed below. The CSA (sponsored by Mr. Thomas Eckel, instructor of Bible and former missionary to France) continues to be a student-run and student-sponsored group.

Not counted in the following report are the students who engage in such activities as teaching Sunday school classes, leading congregational singing, directing choirs, furnishing special music in churches, and serving as devotional speakers.

RECOLLECTIONS WHILE RAMBLING. . .

by Mickey Park

Sort of recharges you to visit an old classmate--Ernie Francis--at the Baptist Children's Home, Kouts, Ind., a lovely place built almost entirely by Ernie and son Bill. You mid-50ers will recall that Ernie had us pray to that end.

Amazing how enduring are the friendships made at Bryan. . . Typical Bryan gathering is loaded with "What about Jim"? "Where are the Joneses?"

Offspring of a gang of Bryanites are amazing also. Pot-luck supper at Jim and Judy Barth's place brought out 16 grads and former students and at least 16 future Bryanites.

Pulpiters in pioneer places . . . Clair Brickel in Brookville, Ohio; Dave Lunney in Fort Wayne; Al Conner in Galion, Ohio; Jerry Day in Columbus, Ind. . .

Not surprising to find Bryanites in key places of lay leadership. Lester Hartschuh--chairman of the board of deacons in Akron's Goss Memorial Church which is pastored by Bill Bennett, a former Bryan conference speaker. . . Music with meaning--choir of First Baptist Church, Wayne, Mich., led by Stu Meissner in "Prayer Before Singing."

A Michigan trip full of variety. Sat in on the organization of Western Michigan Bryan Alumni chapter . . . Wayne Bomgaars, prexy. Spoke in chapel at Baptist Bible Seminary and College where Dave Egner is a student and also a part-time teacher. . . uses Dr. Jensen's book.

. . . Lots of coffee and late night gab sessions with people like Don and Joyann Walker, Mary Ogden Oakley and spouse Frank, Bob and Betty Joy Horne, and Ray Holmes. . . Finally ran into a 5-inch snow that sent me scurrying back to Tennessee.

Much appreciation for '64 Chevy made possible by the alumni gang in Chattanooga. Hours on the road with only the radio for company. . . A good time to catch up on praying.

Grateful for a wonderful wife. . . met and won while at Bryan. . . who shares a common concern for the Alma Mater. We're ready for the new year and all it holds. . . with trust that the God Who has given it will find us faithful.

Dr. Rader has been confined to her home in Dayton since returning from the hospital in September. Shortness of breath and occasional coughing resulting from emphysema prevent her participation in outside activity. She keeps in touch with the outside world through television, newspapers, and magazines, and frequent personal reports of life at Bryan. She continues her ministry of prayer for her "children" and follows all developments with keen interest.

A Decade in Review

by Kenneth Campbell

Kenneth Campbell '56 has been active in youth work and evangelism since his graduation and together with James Reese '56 as soloist and music director, the Campbell-Reese team has been formed. The two men conducted the opening evangelistic services at Bryan last fall. Ken commented publicly about his impressions of Bryan as an alumnus returning to campus for several days, ten years after he had first enrolled.

KEN CAMPBELL

... I have never been more heartily encouraged about what the Lord is doing at Bryan, nor more enthusiastic in anticipation of future developments as the Lord continues to have His way and current trends move toward realization and fulfillment in His will.

Has Bryan changed? Doubtless there are many changes from the Bryan of a decade ago. But the best of the Bryan traditions continue. And as one seeking to keep in step with what the never-changing God is doing in an ever-changing world, I am confident that the Bryan ministry is moving with the Lord and continues at the heart of His redemptive cure for the world's ills, fulfilling in an increasingly effective degree the ideals of the Christian liberal arts college programme.

And, by the way, there are several students on Bryan Hill this fall whom we're delighted to have had a part in directing there and whose presence underscores these heart-felt comments.
